

LONG TERM PLANS

Year Overview (Geography – Year 13)

Humanities Faculty
YEAR 13 – AQA
Autumn and Spring term
Topic 1	Topic 2
Tectonics  Aims:            To understand the physical processes and features created by tectonic plate movement. Students will also investigate the causes, effects and solutions to a variety of case studies. Key Assessment Activity:            Writing assessment	Ecosystems  Aims:            To investigate the physical features of ecosystems on a variety of scales and locations and how humans are shaping them today. Key Assessment Activity:            Writing assessment:
Spring and Summer term
Topic 3	Topic 4
World cities  Aim:            To investigate the growth of major world cities and what social, economic and environmental issues arise from this. Students will also look at how MEDC's and LEDC's attempt to manage this. Key Assessment Activity:            Writing assessment:	Revision  Aims:            To re-visit the units for GEOG 3 and to study the pre-release document for GEOG4b. Key Assessment Activity:            Writing assessment: