

Teacher of Social Science (Sociology and/or Psychology - ability to teach Health and Social Care an advantage)

Salary: MPS

Required: September 2017 (full-time)

Suitable for NQTs and experienced teachers

Dear Applicant

Thank you for your interest in this vacancy. The Nobel School is a very exciting and vibrant secondary school with 1440 on roll, covering the full age and ability range, the majority of whom continue their education into our flourishing sixth form. Our recent rebuilding programme means that we have a 'state of the art' £38 million 21st century school. Furthermore, our most recent Ofsted report confirmed that the school is now good in all categories; this is an exciting time to join our school as we push to be outstanding.

We are seeking to appoint a dedicated and committed colleague to join our dynamic and forward-thinking Economics and Social Sciences Faculty. The successful candidate will be a well-qualified social science graduate with a love of their subject and the ability to work in a collaborative style to maximise the best outcomes for our students; above all we are looking for a colleague who can inspire Nobelians to be aware of current issues in society and have high ambitions. NQTs are welcome to apply and we will be happy to discuss the support we can offer you as you continue your professional development.

The Economics and Social Science Faculty has a strong team with a range of experience, which blends extremely well to ensure that the students are provided with the very best in teaching and learning. We are successful in terms of results, enjoying good working relationships with students at the same time. We are looking for an enthusiastic teacher of social science (sociology and/or psychology - ability to teach Health and Social Care an advantage) who will work with us to develop this success further including working with colleagues to prepare lessons and resources to improve the progress of our students.

Our lovely school has made tremendous progress in recent years. Student progress has a rising three year trend with students in English and maths making significantly better progress than the national figures – our progress 8 figure and value added data are extremely positive. In addition, the school has made significant improvements for vulnerable groups by reducing our "Closing the Gaps" measure for pupil premium students with a three year trend of improvement. KS5 results show a 3 year rising trend for all figures. A Level grades, A*, A*-A, and A*-B are all above national averages and the Average Grade has this year risen to a B-. KS5 students also make excellent progress and the VA for A level (0.13) and BTEC (0.42) has been graded as significantly above average for the past 2 years.

If you would like to visit Nobel or have any queries about this post please contact Mrs Chantal Coakes (HR@nobel.herts.sch.uk), otherwise, I look forward to receiving your application on the enclosed application form, together with your covering letter.

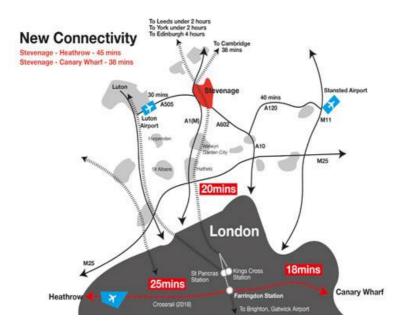

Yours sincerely

Martyn Henson Headteacher

Why you should choose Nobel

The Nobel School is located in Stevenage, a town and borough in Hertfordshire, England, situated on the A1 between Letchworth Garden City to the north and Welwyn Garden City to the south. Just 20 minutes from London via train, a 40 minute drive from Cambridge with nearby airports just 20 minutes away (Luton) and 40 minutes away (Stansted), Stevenage has excellent transport links to London and the rest of the country. Stevenage Old Town has a village feel with historic buildings, cafes, coffee shops, restaurants and coaching inns and is lively in the evenings and weekends (for more information, see http://www.stevenage.gov.uk/regeneration/131675/).

Why you should apply for this post

This is a fantastic opportunity for an enthusiastic and motivated individual to join the Economics and Social Sciences Faculty team. You must possess the skills and determination to make a significant difference to the lives of our students. The most recent school league tables place us as one of the top schools nationally for student value added. The successful candidate will be a well-qualified graduate with a passion for sociology and/or psychology (health and social care is an advantage) and the ability to work in a collaborative style to maximise the best outcomes for our students; above all we are looking for a colleague who can inspire Nobelians to great things.

As a school, we have the very highest expectations of our students. Our core principle will always be that we endeavour to improve the teaching and learning in the school. We are therefore committed to recruiting only the very best teachers and have the highest expectations in terms of lesson planning, classroom delivery and student assessment. In return, we provide excellent working conditions, first rate CPD and a real sense of community.

Next steps

Please complete our application form together with a letter of application that should be no longer than two sides of A4 (Arial, font 11). In your letter you should address: Your vision and values relating to the post and why you want to join the Nobel community. All applications should be made through the relevant recruitment website, or may be sent electronically to HR@nobel.herts.sch.uk The closing date for applications is 11:59pm, Sunday 26 March 2017 and the proposed interview date is Thursday 30 March 2017. Prospective candidates are encouraged to submit their applications as soon as possible as the school reserves the right to close the advert should we feel able to appoint an appropriate candidate.

The Nobel School is committed to safeguarding the welfare of all of its students and staff. The successful candidate will have to meet the requirements of the person specification in order to be offered the post and will be subject to satisfactory recruitment checks, including an enhanced DBS check and satisfactory references. We welcome applications from all suitably qualified individuals regardless of age, gender, ethnicity or religion.

ESS Faculty

The Economics and Social Sciences Faculty (ESS) teaches business, economics, psychology, sociology, health and social care, ICT and computing. We teach a mixture of academic qualifications and vocational qualification at level 2 and level 3 across key stage 3 and key stage 4. We are committed to teaching these subjects in a way that inspires our students to become leaders and practitioners in economics, social sciences, ICT and computing.

Facilities

We have moved into a purpose built new school and have an ICT suite with 30 additional laptops and outstanding resources which enables us to deliver high level practicals across all key stages.

Staffing Structure

The ESS faculty has a head of faculty, Mrs Frost, a head of business and economics and a head of ICT and computing. There are another 8 members of staff teaching across the subjects within the faculty.

ESS Curriculum

Nobel has a 3 year key stage 3 course in ICT with a curriculum designed to ensure that each student develops a growth mind set and is able to achieve expected progress or more. In key stage 4 we offer GCSEs in business, psychology, sociology, health and social care and computing. We also offer vocational courses in business and ICT. Each fortnight, our students have 5 hours of their chosen subject. We offer A Levels in economics, business studies, psychology and sociology and we will be offering A Level computing from September 2016. We also run vocational courses in key stage 5 in business, ICT, public services and health and social care. Our key stage 5 students benefit from 9 hours of teaching from specialist teachers.

Extra-Curricular / Fieldwork

The ESS faculty offers a range of trips and visits as well as extra-curricular activities as part of our programmes. For example our students have worked on projects with local businesses and have had work experience within a range of organisations. We run a bi-annual ESS trip to New York where students get to explore their subjects and application of those subjects within an alternative culture.

Support

The school and the faculty have an excellent reputation for supporting teaching and learning. We train teachers from many different organisations including the University of Hertfordshire and Teach First.

Being an NQT at Nobel School

As you embark on your teaching career as an NQT, you will have a comprehensive induction programme of monitoring and support personalised to meet your professional development needs and to help you meet the requirements for satisfactory completion of the induction period.

All NQTs can expect:

- Support and guidance from a subject mentor.
- Weekly timetabled mentor meetings.
- Regular observation and prompt and constructive feedback.
- Half termly professional reviews of progress with the professional mentor (member of Senior Team).
- Observations of experienced teachers.
- Student shadowing opportunities.
- Opportunities to participate in the Local Authority subject days; including a residential experience. This will allow you to meet and network with other NQTs in your subject area.
- A full range of CPD activities including a programme of NQT twilights.
- Termly assessments in line with County guidance.

At the start of the induction, all NQTs are issued with an induction booklet which outlines the Teachers' Standards and contains templates to record all mentor meetings, professional tutor meetings, evaluations of CPD and a Standards tracker. This enables a central record to be used as a source of evidence against the Teachers' Standards.

Nobel has a strong history of successful NQT induction. You can be assured that you will receive the very best experience on offer.

CRIMINAL RECORDS CHECK - DISCLOSURE & BARRING SERVICE (DBS)

From 1st December 2012, the Criminal Records Bureau (CRB) will merge with the Independent Safeguarding Authority (ISA) to form the Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS) and new disclosure certificates received by the Council will be branded DBS. If you are appointed, you will be required to complete a disclosure application that will be sent to the DBS. The DBS will provide a report to you and to the local authority on whether you have any history of criminal convictions, including cautions and bindovers. All posts in Schools are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974; this means that you must declare all convictions, including those that would generally be regarded as 'spent'. The existence of a criminal background does not automatically mean that you cannot be appointed but it may do so.

THE IMMIGRATION, ASYLUM AND NATIONALITY ACT 2006

In accordance with the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006, the Governing Body will require new members of staff to provide documentary evidence that they are entitled to undertake the position applied for/have an ongoing entitlement to live and work in the United Kingdom. Therefore, on offer of and before commencing a position, candidates should provide documentary evidence of their right to live and work in the UK.

DECLARATION

I certify that the information given above and overleaf is correct to the best of my knowledge.

I understand that an offer of appointment will be subject to satisfactory references, DBS clearance, proof of identity and right to live and work in UK, medical checks and relevant qualifications.

I give consent for personal information provided as part of this application to be held in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1988.

I accept that if any of the enclosed information is found to be untrue or misleading after my appointment, I may be liable for dismissal without notice.

You are requested to complete this form (using supplementary sheets if there is insufficient space for any entry)

- It is essential that you complete and return this form
- This form is your chance to show us how well you can do this job
- Remember just saying you can do it is not enough; we need an example.
- You can use examples from work, school, college, hobbies, voluntary work or daily life.

| Example: | Ability to | prioritise | workload |
|----------|------------|------------|----------|
|----------|------------|------------|----------|

In my current job I plan my work on a daily basis but adjust it when an urgent query or problem arises, e.g. when another team member unexpectedly calls in sick. I always raise any urgent issues with my manager.
