Activity 2

Myths were created by early civilisations to make sense of things happening in the natural world around them. Below are links to animated retellings of a few myths from around the world:

- How Thor Got His Hammer (Norse): <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Qytj-DbXMKQ>
- Isis and the Seven Scorpions (Ancient Egyptian): <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JycXLG6GeYk>
- The Myth Behind the Chinese Zodiac:
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=may2s9j4RLk&list=PLJicmE8fK0EjW2AVwcSc4NvGyJJaw7bzh&index=6>
- The Aztec Myth of the Unlikeliest Sun God: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fMPG-2vXi-s>

Predict: Before you watch each story, look carefully at the title. What do you think the story will be about based on the title? What prior knowledge do you have that could aid your predictions?

Clarify: Are there any unfamiliar words in the titles? Use this online dictionary <https://www.oxfordlearnersdictionaries.com/definition/english/choose?q=choose> to find the meanings of these unfamiliar words. Now watch the clip. Are there any further terms you need to know in order to understand the story? Do you need to watch the story again to have a clear idea of what is happening?

Question:

- Who are the main characters in the story?
- Where is the story set?
- What happens?
- Why does it happen?
- What key ideas are being explored?

Summarise:

Write a paragraph summarising what you have watched. Try and make your summary succinct. Can you summarise the story in no more than 5 lines? Could you reduce it even further?

Stretch & Challenge:

Read this short extract from Neil Gaiman's book, 'Norse Mythology.' Follow the same steps as above.

Thor

Thor, Odin's son, is the thunderer. He is straightforward where his father Odin is cunning, good-natured where his father is devious.

Huge he is, and red-bearded, and strong, by far the strongest of all the gods. His might is increased by his belt of strength, Megingjord: when he wears it, his strength is doubled.

Thor's weapon is Mjollnir, a remarkable hammer, forged for him by dwarfs. Its story you will learn. Trolls and frost giants and mountain giants all tremble when they see Mjollnir, for it has killed so many of their brothers and friends. Thor wears iron gloves, which help him to grip the hammer's shaft.

Thor's mother was Jord, the earth goddess. Thor's sons are Modi, the angry, and Magni, the strong. Thor's daughter is Thrud, the powerful.

His wife is Sif, of the golden hair. She had a son, Ullr, before she married Thor, and Thor is Ullr's stepfather. Ullr is a god who hunts with bow and with arrows, and he is the god with skis.

Thor is the defender of Asgard and of Midgard.

There are many stories about Thor and his adventures. You will encounter some of them here.
