This weeks task- pages 9 and 10….and beyond !

This last week I have shared the Themes for pages 9 and 10 and a lot more to help you complete your Journal over the Summer.

You can continue weekly until your Journal pages are full or select particular themes you really want to explore in any order.

Remember how you respond is up to you. Stick closely to the brief or merely use it as inspiration to go as far as you want with the idea.
Your journal should reflect your creative potential and drawing skill so think outside of the box !

Make sure you have it with you for your First Art lesson in September it is part of your A Level Portfolio.
