

Politics A Level Summer Tasks

Welcome to A Level Politics! We are so excited for you to be joining us. Please complete all these summer tasks and bring your notes to our first lesson. There will be a news quiz in our first lesson!

Task 1: News Journal

Politics A Level requires you to be consistently up to date with current affairs – relevant examples get more marks!

Twice per week you must read and summarise two major news stories. You must read articles from at least two different news outlets. Summarise the stories into bullet point notes.

Task 2: Studying Politics: A Beginner's Guide

Read through the article here. Do you have any questions or queries when you've finished? Write them down and bring them to our first lesson.

Task 3: What are Politics and Democracy?

Watch the videos below and answer these questions:

How would you define Politics? Why do you think about why it is such a contested concept? Why do you think different people define politics so differently?
